

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Immigration formalities

Citizens of member states of the European Union do not need a visa to visit France. Citizens of other countries are advised to check whether or not a visa is needed sufficiently far in advance of their departure date.

Meals

The room charge includes breakfast, as usually served in France. Other meals are not included. It may be that your host can provide other meals if desired, in which case he or she should be paid directly.

Payment conditions

A deposit of 40 euros for stays of less than one week, and 80 euros for stays of between one and two weeks and for reservations of several rooms is to be paid on reservation. For longer stays, or stays of one night, please consult us for details of the amount. The balance should be paid at least 30 days before the beginning of your stay. If your reservation is made less than 30 days prior to the first night of your stay, the full amount of the accommodation fee is payable immediately.

Cancellation

A stay is confirmed by receipt of the balance of the accommodation fee and when the visitor is informed of the address of their accommodation. Any subsequent cancellation will result in the following penalties :

Between 30 days and 10 days before the first night : the loss of 50% of the accommodation fee.

Between 9 days and 3 days before the first night : the loss of 75% of the accommodation fee.

Less than 3 days before the first night : the loss of 100% of the accommodation fee.

Risks and guarantees

We have full cover for our civil liability in both administrative and operational matters. We would however advise customers to check that they are covered in France for civil liability, to make their own arrangements for insurance against cancellation, and to ensure that they have an appropriate level of cover for medical and other assistance whilst travelling.
